THE LONG AGONY OVER!

The following dispatch was received from Judge KENNON, at about 7-12 o'clock last night.

COLUMBUS, March 24, 1858.

E. E. KENNON: Vote on the passage of the Bill, yeas, (22), nays, (67). Hand delivered.

WM. KENNON.

Never did we see as impatient a crowd as hung around the counter of the Telegraph Office, while Mr. WARREN was receiving the Message.

The result was greeted with rounds of cheers. The gentleman taking the Message up street, could not be got to answer any question, but simply said yes, 22, nays 67. One of Mr. Lewis's Omnibuses was got out, and drove around town with our fine Band, while tar barrels brilliantly lit up the streets, and the deep, sultry boom of the cannon, and rockets, sent the glad tidings far and near. Never did we see such general rejoicing. Ladies greeted the Band and passing crowd with smiles and waving of handkerchiefs, and every one appeared to be in a good humor, and rejoicing. Some one proposed three cheers for the Ohio Legislature, and the yells of that swaying mass seemed to rend the very heavens. Three hearty cheers were also given for Judges COWEN, KENNON, Dr. WEST, PETER TALLMAN, and D. S. ADAMS, Esq's., who have been so efficient in presenting the claims of the anti-removalists to the Legislature. The crowd stopped in front of the old Court House, and gave three cheers for the "old rat trap," as it has been called. Arriving in front of Dr. West's Drug Store, and the Republican Office, which was brilliantly illuminated, three deafening cheers were given for Dr. West and three for Capt. CHARLES WORTH. There were a number of laughable incidents connected with the display, which a limited space prevents us noticing. The firing of the cannon and shooting of rockets was kept up until a late hour, but the crowd had generally dispersed by 11 o'clock.

Dr. West's Drug Store, and the Republican Office, which was brilliantly illuminated, three deafening cheers were given for Dr. West and three for Capt. CHARLES WORTH.

COURT REPORT.

March 20th. SENATE.—Mr. Wilson announced his intention to speak to the Kansas question this evening.

Mr. Foote earnestly protested against Leocompton as a constitutional length.

Mr. Bayard, from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, submitted a report and resolutions in relation to matters between the United States and China. Laid on the table.

HOUSE.—Mr. Adrian spoke violently against Leocompton, and at considerable length.

Mr. Wright, of Tennessee, would vote for the admission of Kansas because he believed it was a measure of justice, fraught with peace to Kansas and harmony to the whole confederacy. He would relieve that territory from a band of marauders who had grown fat on her blood, and give her power to protect herself.

LECOMPTON PASSED THE SENATE.

March 22nd. SENATE.—Mr. Crittenden, of Ky., said he would not reopen the debate on a personal explanation, said his statements were made from official records. He spoke for some time, and at his conclusion, Mr. Green withdrew his Minnesota bill together, and offered three amendments to the original bill. 1st. To strike out the preamble, and insert the following: "Resolved, That the people of the Territory of Kansas did, by a Convention of delegates called and assembled at Leocompton, on the 9th of September, 1857, form for themselves a Constitution and State government, under which said Convention have asked admission of the Territory into the Union as an equal footing with the original States, &c." Carried.

2nd. To amend the 3d section by adding the following clause: "That nothing in this act shall be construed to abridge or infringe on any right of the people asserted in the Kansas Constitution, at all times, to alter, amend or abolish the form of government in such a manner as they may deem proper. Congress hereby disclaiming any authority to intervene or declare the construction of any State except to see that it is Republican and not in conflict with the Constitution of the United States. The amendment was agreed to—yeas 31 nays 24.

3rd. A verbal amendment in the 11th line, 2d section, to cancel to "in the Ordinance of said Constitution," and substitute "in Ordinance according to said Constitution." Carried.

Mr. Pugh withdrew his amendment, of March 24, to amendment of Mr. Green, and substituted another, setting forth that the Federal laws are not applicable to be extended into the State of Kansas, and that a Judicial District be formed, and a Judge, District Attorney and U. S. Marshal be appointed and paid as in laws. Agreed to—yeas 37 nays 10.

Mr. Crittenden moved a substitute for the bill in substance: "That the Constitution formed by the Leocompton Convention be submitted to the people of Kansas now, and if approved the President shall admit Kansas by Proclamation. If it is rejected, the people shall call a Convention to form a new Constitution. The substitute makes special provision against the occurrence of new frauds."

Several Senators here took occasion to explain their votes.

Mr. Kennedy would support Mr. Crittenden's substitute, reserving the right to vote for the original bill.

Mr. Houston, of Texas, would vote for the original bill in obedience to resolutions passed by the Legislature of his State.

Mr. Pugh, of Ohio, reluctantly voted against it for the same reason.

Mr. Iverson, of Ga., defined his position. Mr. Green accepted the suggestion of an honorable alternative, and the debate was then put to rest.

Mr. Crittenden's substitute was then put and lost; yeas, 24, nays 34.

The bill as amended to admit Kansas into the Union under the Leocompton Constitution, was then put and passed; yeas 33, nays 25.

Yeas—Allen, Bayard, Benjamin, Biggs, Bright, Brown, Clay, Evans, Fish, Fitzpatrick, Green, Gwynn, Hammond, Henderson, Houston, Hunter, Iverson, Jones, Johnson, of Ark., Johnson, of Tenn., Kennedy, of Md., Mallory, Mason, Polk, Sebastian, Sill, Thompson, of Ky., Thompson, of N. J., Toombs, Wright and Yule; 33.

Nays—Messrs. Bell, Brodhead, Chandler, Clark, Collamer, Crittenden, Dixon, Dooley, Douglas, Durkee, Fessenden, Fox, Foster, Hale, Hamlin, Harlan, King, Fugh, Simmons, Stuart, Sumner, Trumbull, Wade and Wilson, 25. Absentees, Bates and Davis. Read, of N. C., paired off with Crittenden, of Pa.

The announcement of the result was received with cheers and hisses.

From the St. Louis Evening News.

Terrible Barbarity to a Female in St. Louis—Peters' Slave Girl Again.

All the citizens of St. Louis, and most of the citizens of the United States, are familiar with the case of the Peters, for cruel ties practiced on their slave girl Lucretia.

At the last term of the Criminal Court they were both tried and convicted of these crimes, and sentenced to a year's imprisonment in the county jail, and to pay a fine of $1,000 each. An appeal was taken to the Supreme Court, and a stay of execution granted during the pendency of an appeal. So far from this verdict and an outrageous public opinion having any influence to restrain these cruel people from further barbarities, they appear to have been worse since than before.

It is reported on pretty good authority, that one of the parties boasted that the cruel treatment was practiced the same as ever, but that the girl was taken into the cellar in the night time, and such.

Shortly after the verdict, the girl was found on the river bank in a state of nudity, covered with fresh stripes and blood, and said that she had been so barbarously maltreated by her owners, that she could not endure it any longer, and had, therefore, run away.

The same showed that the last evidence of contemplated suicide, and was about to drown herself when discovered. The person discovering her considered it his duty to return her to her tormentors.

A third chapter in this diary of brutality came to light yesterday evening. About six o'clock, as officer Grunwell was passing the residence of the Peters, on Sixth street, near Franklin avenue, he heard loud screams as if of some person undergoing terrible suffering, and in a moment thereafter, the negro girl Lucretia leaped over the fence, and was caught in the officer's arms. Her head was covered with blood, proceeding from two gashes, penetrating to the bone. The officer took her to the jailhouse, where the wounds were dressed by the Health officer. Her story was that she had been beaten by Mr. and Mrs. Peters, and that the latter struck her on the head with a loose table leg.

The girl's testimony of course could not be taken in a court of justice, and it is not likely that any can be obtained. All the circumstances, however, go to prove its truth. These brutalities have proceeded quite long enough, and we would ask, in the name of humanity, whether the people of St. Louis are so powerless that such things must be permitted to take place with impunity? Is there no redress or protection for a helpless slave against the inhumanity of an owner?

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER ARABIA.

The steamer Arabia, with dates to the 6, has arrived.

There is quite a lull in the political war. All the members of the Derby Club will be re-elected by Parliament, without opposition.

CORRUS.—Sales of the week were 35,000 bales, with 4,000 to speculators and 1,800 to exports. Middling qualities improved.

The stock in port was 181,000 bales, and increased 82,000 of American.

Liverpool.—Broadgoods dull. Corn closed with advancing tendency; all qualities improved. Richardson, Spence & Co., report Flour dull and quotations nominal.

Wheat quiet; red firm at 6s 6d; white 7s 6d. Sugar advanced 6d; white 34s; mixed 34s 6d. Beef heavy. Pork dull. Bacon quiet. Lard firm and more doing, at 45s 6d. Sugar buoyant. Coffee quiet.

LONDON.—The bullion in the Bank had increased £50,000 sterling. Money market generally unchanged.

Political news is meagre and unimportant. The British Cabinet was being elected by Parliament without opposition.

The Italian constitutional party are holding a conference in London, and agitate the formation of a national confederacy in Italy.

The propriety of holding a great exhibition in
